Hi (enter name of squaddie)

My name is (enter your name). I got your name from a group called Adopt A British Squaddie which you registered with recently. Their web page is <http://www.adoptasquaddie.org/>.

You may be wondering why a complete stranger has sent you a welfare parcel? Well the reason is quite simple - I wanted to do something that showed the admiration and respect that I have for our brave men and women serving in our armed forces today.

I've put together a few items that I hope will come in useful and that will hopefully give you some comforts from home. If there's anything in the box that you don't need just share it out and pass it on to your mates. If there is anything in particular that you would like me to send just drop me a line if you get the chance, and I'll do my best to get it for you. In the meantime head down, move fast and stay low and above all stay safe. Huge respects to you
